Northwind Analytics, Inc. - FY26 Business Review

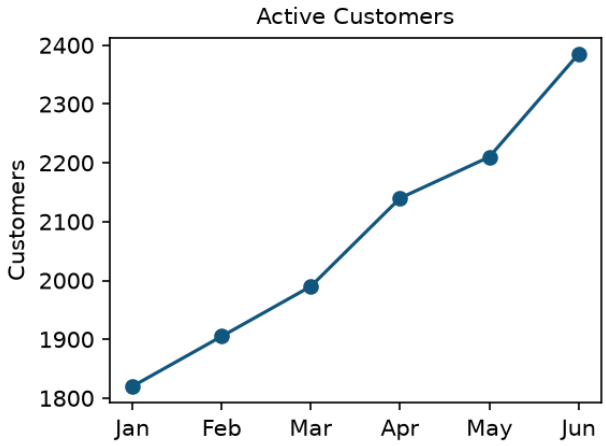

Executive summary. Revenue grew in three of four quarters, finishing the year at a Q4 high. Q3 softness reflects a delayed EMEA renewal cycle.

Customers. Active customers rose every month of the first half.

Regional mix. North America remains the largest region; APAC is the fastest growing from a smaller base.

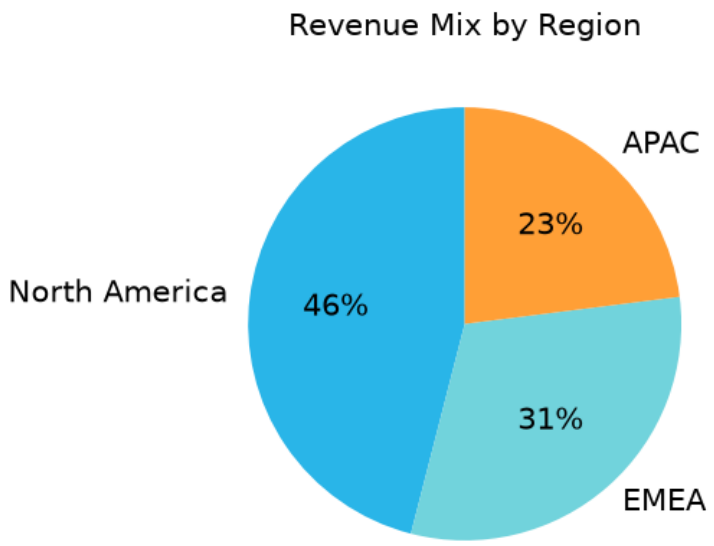

Outlook. Management expects continued growth driven by expansion within existing accounts.

Notes. Revenue is recognized ratably. Customer counts are month-end active paying accounts. Figures are unaudited.
